Jumper- Not a big deal

“Jumper” — a movie about a guy who transports himself across the globe at will — is far from interesting. The trouble here starts when a likable high-school loser, David Rice (Max Thieriot), discovers that he can teleport. He zips from Detroit to Tokyo (and into bank vaults) and has transformed into a materialist slacker. Then, you know, something happens. In this case, the something is mostly Samuel L. Jackson, who, as a mysterious avenger.

Glosary:

Zip: To move or go somewhere very quickly

Slacker: Showing a lack of activity; not busy or happening in a positive way

Vault: A room, especially in a bank, with thick walls and a strong door, which is used to store money or valuable things in safe conditions

Avenger: To do harm to or punish the person responsible for something bad done to you or your family or friends in order to achieve a fair situation

- Is it a positive or a negative review? Do you agree with the review?
